Section 7 – Data Privacy Notice - Personal and Business information

Who looks after your personal information?

Your personal information will be held by Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited, which is part of Canaccord Genuity group of companies (the Group), and is registered as a 'Controller' under the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018 as we collect and process personal information about you. More information on the Group can be found at www.canaccordgenuity.com.

How we use personal information

To provide products and services, manage your shareholding in the Company, manage your relationship with us and comply with any laws or regulations we are subject to (for example the laws that prevent financial crime or the regulatory requirements governing the products we offer). For other purposes including improving our services and exercising our rights in relation to agreements and contracts.

To support us with the above, we analyse information we know about you and how you use our products and services, including some automated decision making.

You can find out more about how we use your personal Information, and in what circumstances you can ask us to stop, in our full privacy notice.

Who we share personal information with

Your personal information will be shared within our Group and with our service providers, so that we and any other companies in our Group can look after your relationship with us. By sharing this information it enables us to better understand our customers' needs, run accounts, and provide products and services efficiently. This processing will include some activities which take place outside of Jersey and/or the European Economic Area in jurisdictions whose data protection laws may not be as extensive as those which apply to us. In these instances we will ensure appropriate safeguards are in place to protect your personal information. You can find out more about how we share your personal information in our full privacy notice.

Where we collect personal information from

We will collect personal information from a number of sources including:

- information given to us on application forms, if you meet with us face-to-face, over the phone, by email or
- through the device you use and when new services are requested
- from analysis of how you operate our products and services, including the frequency, nature, location,
- origin and recipients of any payments
- from or through other organisations (for example, your financial intermediary, credit reference agencies
- and fraud prevention agencies).

You can find out more about where we collect personal information about you in our full privacy notice.

Our data retention policy?

We are committed to only keeping your personal data only for as long as we need to in order to fulfil the relevant purpose(s) it was collected for and for as long as we are required, or permitted, to keep it by law. In most cases, we will retain your personal Information for not less than 10 years after termination or expiry of our contract with you.

Please note, some of your personal information will be held on a shareholder register. As required by law, these registers are shared with the Jersey Financial Services Commission and may be subject to data retention periods / requirements that differ from our own.

You can find out more about our data retention policies in our full privacy notice.

Do you have to give us your personal information?

We may be required by law, or as a consequence of any contractual relationship we have, to collect certain personal information. Failure to provide this information may prevent or delay us fulfilling these obligations or performing services.

What rights you have over your personal information

The law gives you a number of rights in relation to your personal information including:

- the right to access the personal information we have about you. This includes information from application forms, statements, correspondence and call recordings
- the right to get us to correct personal information that is wrong or incomplete
- in certain circumstances, the right to ask us to stop using or delete your personal information
- in certain circumstances, to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly-used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit that data to another data controller without hindrance, or to have that personal data transmitted to another data controller, where technically feasible.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority about the way in which your personal data is being used:

- In Jersey to: the Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner www.jerseyoic.org/raise-a-concern-options/

If you would like to lodge a complaint with us, or exercise any of your rights, please contact us using our contact details below.

Where we rely on your consent to use your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. You can find out more about these rights and how you can exercise them in our full privacy notice.

Other individuals you have financial links with

We may also collect personal information about other individuals who you have a financial link with. This may include people who you have joint accounts or policies with such as your partner/spouse, dependents, beneficiaries or people you have commercial links to, for example other directors or officers of your company. We will collect this information to assess any applications, provide the services requested and to carry out credit reference and fraud prevention checks. You can find out more about how we process personal information about individuals with whom you have a financial link in our full privacy notice.

How we use credit reference agencies

In order to process your application we may supply your personal information to credit reference agencies (CRAs) including how you use our products and services and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to check your identity and prevent criminal activity.

We may also continue to exchange information about you with CRAs on an ongoing basis, information on fund going into the account and the balance on the account. CRAs will share your information with other organisations, for example other organisations you ask to provide you with products and services. Your data will also be linked to the data of any joint applicants or other financial associates as explained above.

How we use fraud prevention agencies

The personal information we have collected from you and anyone you have a financial link with may be shared with fraud prevention agencies that will use it to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Further details of how your information will be used by us and these fraud prevention agencies, and your data protection rights, can be found in our full privacy notice.

Our full privacy notice

It is important that you understand how the personal information you give us will be used. Therefore, we strongly advise that you read our full privacy notice, which you can find at www.canaccordgenuity.com/49f9ab/globalassets/wealth-management-uk/documents/privacy-notice.pdf or you can ask us for a copy.

Definitions

Applicant

The entity in whose name the shareholding will be registered.

Third Party/ies

Person(s) for whom the Applicant is acting – the Applicant's customers.

Nominee Shareholders

Nominee shareholders are the registered owner of shares held for the benefit of another person (the beneficial owner). The beneficial owner may choose to appoint a nominee because it does not wish to have the shares registered in its own name, or it may be required to appoint a nominee.

Section 1 Applicant details

Source of wealth

This is distinct from source of funds, and describes the activities which have generated the total net worth of a person, i.e. those activities which have generated a customer's funds and property. Information concerning the geographical sphere of the activities that have generated a customer's wealth may also be relevant.

Higher risk factors

Higher risk factors include situations where the Applicant or Third Party/ies are:

- A person with a connection to an 'enhanced risk state' (as defined in the Jersey Financial Services Commission AML/CFT Handbook, Appendix D1)
- A person with a connection to a country identified as presenting higher risks (as defined in the Jersey Financial Services Commission AML/CFT Handbook, Appendix D2)
- A Politically Exposed Person (PEP) including an immediate family member or close associate of a PEP
- A resident of or a person connected with a sanctioned country
- A person who carries out, or whose source of funds or wealth derives from a 'sensitive activity' as defined by the Jersey Financial Services Commission in Table 2 of its Sensitive Business Practice Policy
- A person regarded as Higher Risk by the Applicant due to the presence of other risk factors.

Section 2 Tax Information

Tax Identification Number (TIN)

Is an identifying number used for tax purposes. Most countries issue them to identify their taxpayers and to help with the administration of tax affairs. For entities, jurisdictions may use a business/company registration code or number where no TIN has been issued.

Global Intermediary Identification Number

Consists of 19 characters, GIINs are assigned by the FATCA registration system to financial institutions and direct-reporting non-financial entities. The complete list of the variety of reporting entities includes:

- Foreign financial institutions (FFIs)
- Financial institution (FI) branches
- Direct reporting non-financial foreign entities (NFFE)
- Sponsoring entities, sponsored entities and sponsored subsidiary branches.

These registered entities can use their official GIIN to identify themselves to withholding agents and tax administrators for FATCA reporting purposes.

FATCA

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act.

FATCA tax Status

Used by non-resident alien or foreign corporation, to avoid or reduce tax withholding from U.S source income. The Certificate of Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding and Reporting (Entities) a.k.a. Form W-8BEN-E is used by a foreign person to establish beneficial ownership and foreign status.

Section 3 Key Account Party details

This section requires details of all key account parties in relation to the Applicant. Key account parties are:

- All Directors and persons having senior management positions and persons having senior management positions of the Applicant, whether individuals or corporate entities; any individuals having a senior management position means those who have and exercise strategic decision taking powers or who have and exercise executive control
- Any beneficial owner or controller of the Applicant; namely:
 - any person holding a material controlling ownership interest in the Applicant, whether by direct or indirect holdings or voting rights or who exerts control through other ownership interests (e.g., shareholders); or, if no such person exists, then; – any person who exerts control over the Applicant through other means (e.g., through close personal connections); or if no such person, then; any person who exercises control of the Applicant through positions held (e.g., Directors and persons having senior management positions) and, if any person identified above is not an individual, each individual who is that person's beneficial owner or controller with ultimate control of the Applicant (by applying the same three criteria).

Material Controlling Ownership Interest means

- persons who hold a material controlling ownership interest in the capital of the applicant through direct or indirect holdings of interests or voting rights, or who exert control through other ownership means or, if applicable,
- individuals who exert control through other means (for example personal connections, by participating in financing, through close family relationships, as a result of historical or contractual associations or as result of default on certain payments, or

- if no individual is otherwise identified, individuals who exercise control of the applicant through positions held (who have or exercise strategic decision-taking powers or who have and exercise executive control through senior management positions). Material controlling interest in capital is generally set at 10%.

Section 4 Investment and Withdrawal details

Monies in respect of applications may be paid by telegraphic transfer or cheque. Please mark (insert tick symbol) the relevant box, dependent on which payment method you choose.

- For payment by telegraphic transfer, please arrange for your bank to pay, net of all charges, the exact amount to be invested to our settlement bank details provided on page 15 and insert the date on which this payment will be made. The investment will be made on the first Dealing Day following receipt of the funds. In order to avoid unnecessary delay in applying funds for the purchase of shares, ensure that the Manager is pre-advised of the payment and that the name of the fund and your name are quoted as references
- For payments by cheque, issue the cheque drawn on the account of the Applicant for the exact amount to be invested, made payable to 'Canaccord International Fund Managers Limited reference account name/ designation' and attach to your Application Form. Cheques made payable to a third party and endorsed are not acceptable. Persons intending to pay funds by this means should note that the investment will be made on the first Dealing Day following receipt of cleared funds. Sterling cheques drawn on a UK bank will normally take three working days to clear and drafts in other currencies will take longer and may be subject to charges
- For Regular Savings in sterling only, please completed the enclosed Direct Debit form. For Regular Savings in euro, please complete the enclosed Standing Order Instruction
- If you have opted to make Regular Withdrawals, please complete section 4. Nominated Bank account, as all redemption proceeds will be paid to your nominated bank account.

Section 5 Nominated Bank Account

Insert the full name and address of your bank, together with full account name and account number. Investors should note that this is the bank account to which the Manager will repay the proceeds of any redemptions.

Section 6 Dividends:

If you're investing in one of the Sterling Fixed Income Fund Classes, please tick one of the relevant boxes to select your preferred option.
